

Garden of Meditation Niches

A stepped black granite wall set in a planted garden at Washington Memorial Park — sold as companion niches, with two rules worth knowing before you choose.

SECTION 1

The Wall

Polished black granite, stepping up out of a planted bed

The Garden of Meditation wall in late-summer morning light, with the planted bed in front of it.

The Garden of Meditation niches are a single stepped wall of polished black granite, set into a planted garden with a low kerb and a bed of flowering perennials along the front. It steps up from low wings at either end to a taller centre section. The plates and the vase holders are bronze.

It is a garden rather than a building. There is no roof, no courtyard and no room — you stand on the path in front of the wall with the lawn and the trees behind you. In summer the bed in front of it is in flower.

Its official property address is GOM-1-1-ROW-SPACE, so a specific niche reads as, for example, GOM-1-1-C-7. Rows run A at the bottom to G at the top.

SECTION 2

Sold as Companions

Two people, one niche, one contract — and one urn that fits

A Garden of Meditation niche

GRANITE FRONT · COMPANION · ONE NICHE VASE INCLUDED

Every niche here is sold as a companion, with two rights of interment, and includes one niche vase. Price follows the row: the lower rows are the least expensive and the top of the centre section the most.

NICHE PRICE RANGE

$5,995–$8,995

Because of the size of the niche, the Interlude Urn is required — two of them fit. The companion capacity and the urn requirement are one fact rather than two: the niche holds two people because two Interlude Urns fit in it. The Interlude Urn is $665 each plus 10.4% sales tax. It is merchandise, quoted alongside the niche rather than charged as a fee, and it is worth bringing into the urn conversation early rather than choosing an urn first.

Open the Garden of Meditation niche map to see the wall row by row with the exact price and today's status of every niche.

SECTION 3

Two Rules for This Wall

Both are firm, and both are easier to hear now than later

TWO RULES FOR THIS WALL

“NO PHOTOS ALLOWED” — a firm rule at the Garden of Meditation, reproduced here word for word. It is about what may go on the niche front: the wall carries bronze plates and bronze vase holders and nothing else, so no photograph is added to a plate here. Ask your family service director how it applies to what you have in mind.

“E.C.F: 10% — *E.C.F is not included in listed pricing” — the Endowment Care Fund charge is added to the niche price rather than contained in it.

Up to two inscriptions may be added to the front of a companion niche — one for each person.

SECTION 4

What It Costs

The niche, the charges alongside it, and the urn

ADDITIONAL CHARGES

Opening and closing, recording, endowment care and any inscription are charged in addition to the price of the space. They are straightforward, and they differ by location and by what you choose — call or email me and I will put the exact figures in writing for you, with no obligation.

About these charges. The amounts above follow the Mountain View Columbarium, June 2026 schedule, confirmed 2026-07-31. They are not the older amounts printed on this location's own sheet — they replace the older ones printed on the sheet, and they are the current ones. Your family service director will confirm the current charges before quoting.

SECTION 5

What Is Available Now

A small number, in three rows

18 of the 168 niches on the wall are for sale today, in the $5,995, $6,995 and $8,995 rows. Only part of the wall is offered at any one time, and this is an established garden rather than new inventory — so the row and the height still available today may not be there in a month.

Open the Garden of Meditation niche map to see exactly which niches are available and what each one costs.

SECTION 6

Coming to See It

What to decide, and what we will confirm for you

- Decide whether an outdoor garden wall is what you want, rather than a courtyard or an indoor room.
- Bring the Interlude Urn into the conversation early — it is required here, and two fit in the niche.
- Decide the row. The lower rows are the least expensive and the top of the centre section the most.
- Ask us to confirm the exact niche, its price and today’s availability before anything is signed.

Ranges in this guide are computed from the price and availability data behind our live niche maps and are re-checked against them automatically whenever this page changes. They describe what is currently offered for sale, and a range moves as spaces sell. The exact price of a specific niche, and today’s availability, are always the ones your family service director confirms for you.
