Scattering Garden Options

Three gardens where cremated remains are scattered, each with a name on a memorial so there is still somewhere to visit.

A name, and a place

In all three gardens the remains are scattered and the cemetery keeps the garden. What you get besides is an engraved memorial with the name on it and a recorded address your family can come back to. That's the thing scattering somewhere private can't give you.

I will price the one you want

The three packages are close in total and differ mainly in the memorial. Tell me which garden and I will put the exact figures in writing for you, with no obligation attached.
